

K

is for Killer Whale

Have you ever seen an Orca show? It is spectacular to see them passing by and jumping out of the water to breathe. Whale watching is a popular activity off the coast of British Columbia. People come from around the world to see these majestic animals.

Draw yourself in a boat with others and pretend you are whale watching. How many whales will you see?

